Join us in New York State’s capital for a one-of-a-kind conference with some of the nation’s preeminent scholars on the Civil War and the law as we consider legal issues that led to and defined the Civil War and post-war reconstruction.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
- The Fugitive Slave Act and Emancipation
- Rights of Emancipated/Free Blacks
- Emancipation and Presidential Power
- Civil Liberties: Friday Congress
- Recruitment of Black Troops
- The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln
- Military Justice

Conference Registration
Alumni/Member: $75 • Non-Alumni/Member: $85

For the full agenda and to register online, go to www.nysarchivestrust.org

April 20, 2012
Noon: Laying of Ceremonial Wreaths
Old Dutch Church
1:30 pm: Exploring the life of Geo. Clinton
John P. Kaminski, Author
Ulster County Courthouse, 255 Wall Street
3:00 pm: Reception to Follow
DAR Headquarters
3 Crown Street (behind Courthouse)

Exhibits at Persen House and Senate House State Historic Site

For More Information:
845-331-7380 | countyclerk@co.ulster.ny.us

Old Dutch Reformed Church
272 Wall Street
Kingston, NY 12401